

The Dumfries Rambler (Reel 4x32)

A dance for 4 couples in a longways set

The music for this dance is available on the CD We Twa recorded by Kenny Thomson and the Wardlaw Band. For information on availability contact sue@suepetyt.me.uk

This dance has been written for the Dumfries Branch of the R.S.C.D.S.

1-4 Second couple dance half a figure of eight round the first couple and finish in the centre of the dance facing down, WHILE third couple dance half a figure of eight round fourth couple and finish in the centre of the dance facing up.

5-6 Second and third couples set facing each other.

7-8 Second and third couples dance left hands across half way round and finish second couple in third couples place facing down, and third couple in second couples place facing up. (Second man and third lady do not need to dance out to the side lines)

9-16 All dance reels of four on the sides, first and third couples, and second and fourth couples passing right shoulder to begin.

17-18 First and third ladies, first and third men, second and fourth ladies, second and fourth men, change places on the side giving right hands.

19-20 All join hands on the sides and set.

21-24 Third couple with first couple, fourth couple with second couple, dance right hands across.

25-32 All circle round and back.

Finish 3,1,4,2

Repeat from new positions.

Sue Petyt
August 2003